

16th Annual MIDWEST BAT WORKING GROUP Meeting
Cincinnati, Ohio
April 3-4, 2024

Meeting Hosts: Ohio Bat Working Group

Location: Hilton Netherlands Plaza
 35 W 5th St, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202

The Midwest Bat Working Group (MWBWG) is proud to host our annual meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3-4, 2024. The annual meeting provides a venue for participants to present results from studies, provide updates on long-term research projects, and plan future multi-state collaborative endeavors, all on local, regional, and national scales. This meeting is highly valuable to biologists looking to collaborate on research and management of bats, as well as to professionals who promote conservation by enhancing public understanding of bats.

Each year, sponsors play an invaluable role in making the annual MWBWG meeting a success. Donations from sponsors help to keep registration costs low, making it easier for all to attend, especially students and early career professionals. This meeting strives to bring professionals together to work collaboratively towards the conservation of bats, which are facing unprecedented declines, and your contribution helps to make that happen. We greatly appreciate any donation level. Below is a sponsorship form and the associated rewards to help guide your decision.
